GOSSIP OF THE RACETRACK

ALL THE BRIGHTON STAKES WILL BE DECLARED OFF,

But a Meeting Will Surely Be Held at the Beach, the Programme to Be Made Up of Overnight Events, Says Presiden Fitzgerald-Helmet Is a Good Colt

All of the stake races scheduled to be run at the Brighton Beach meeting next month will be declared off. That was the officia announcement made at Sheepshead Bay yes-terday. The meeting will be held, however and all races will be overnight handicaps of selling events, with perhaps $400 in added money. C. J. Fitzgeraid, president of the Brighton Beach Racing Association, said that the best racing possible under the present conditions would be held and that all moneys. after legitimate expenses had been paid, would be turned over to the horsemen. It is said that the Brighton Beach Association is in an embarrassing predicament and that this course has been made imperative. It would be folly under the circumstances to incur tremendous liabilities with small gats receipt

Whether the rates of admission will be reduced or not remains to be seen, but many experienced racetrack men believe that with a popular scale of prices large crowds would turn out and that the meeting could be made to pay or at least afford an even break financially. It is an assured fact that there will be a race meeting at Empire City, while a two week session will doubtless be held at Saratoga. It was said yesterday that the Coney Island Jockey Club would probably lose ail of $100,000, if not more, on the present meeting sons at the track vesterday, but of this numbe probably 1,500 did not pay to get in. The rich stakes to be decided at Sheepshead Bay are a heavy burden, but the owners of the track decided some time ago to keep faith with the horsemen and breeders at any cost.

The police arrangements at the track yesterday were about the same. No arrests were made because there was no open violation of the betting law. There was plenty of private speculation between individuals, however, and there was more enthusiasm over the various races than for some time past. The betting ring has been turned into a big restaurant. Tables, chairs and benches were placed in the huge shed yesterday, but they did not attract much patronage. In a few days, though, it is believed that the crowd on the lawn will tire of the hot rays of the sun and seek the shade in the former "market place." James R. Keene was on hand yesterday to see his colts Ballot and Helmet win. Ballot picked up $3,840 as his share of the Equality Stakes as easily as rolling off a log. Because of this triumph Ballot will have to carry 137 pounds in the Sheepshead Bay Handicap and 134 in the Commonwealth Handicap, to be run on July 4. Previous winners of the Equality were Dublin and Highlander, who ran a dead heat in 1902; Goldsmith, Dolly Spanker, Hamburg Belle (twice) and Frank Ever since last fall Mr. Keene's Helmet, a black colt by Diegalse-St. Mildred, has been heralded as a star two-year-old. He made his first appearance of the season in a race for two-year-olds named after the who started Connaught Ranger, a chestnut colt by Yankee-Ilithyia, in this event, said that Helmet was a splendid youngster and that he had no chance to beat him. Helmet then proceeded to win like a high class stake colt, his performance exciting the admiration of all the expert turfmen who saw the race He ran five furlongs straightaway in 0:59 3-5, one and one-fifth seconds slower than Hata-soo's track record. He was only galloping at the end and pulled up as if he had only indulged in a short breather. Madden's colt, who ran second, two lengths back gave five pounds to Helmet and easily took the measure of Mr. Keene's Turncoat, a bay colt by Voter-Costume, Woodford Clay uncovered a promising youngster in this event in Enfield, by Star Shoot—Isolee, who had a world of early speed but was evidently short. Helmet will meet Madden's Sir Martin and Fayette in the $25,000 Great Trial Stakes next Saturday.

That Grapple is the best horse in training in races over the turf course at the Bay was again demonstrated when he won the Tenny at the track just in time to tell his friends that Grapple could not lose. Grapple ran a mile and a furlong in 1:58 4-5, which was record, hung up by Tourenne last September He was entered to be sold for $1,000, but there was no bid. Poterne, a French mare, by Elf-Halte La, was supposed to have a chance in this event, but she was turned half around when the barrier went up and lost so much ground that she was never a factor. Her aire, Elf, is also the sire of W. K. Vanderbilt's colt Seasick II., who has won some valuable stakes in France.

It is said that Thomas H. Williams, in view of the adverse legislation in this State and be decided at Oakland next winter. It is his plan to offer several $20,000 guaran-teed events, others of $10,000 and several of $5,000, with the idea of attracting the entries of all the largest breeders and owners in this country.

The Personal Liberty League, which will be formally organized in a few days, has opened headquarters in the St. Paul Building, 726 Broadway. Frank W. Thorp and George H. Smith have been placed in charge of affairs temporarily. They gave out a statement at the track yesterday which included these words: "Enrollment is necessary and at once. Send in your full name, your voting address, and do not neglect to state you Assembly and Senatorial district. Please accompany the enrollment with a contribu-tion of one dollar, which is to be used for stationery, stamps, printing, clerk hire, maintenance of headquarters, &c. Emblems will be forwarded as soon as possible. The premoters of this league have in mind a thorough organization of personal liberty believers on a broad and liberal basis. They welcome those who believe in liberal Sunday laws which will permit the man who labors six days a week to enjoy baseball athletics and other diversions on Sundays if it so pleases him.

"They will also welcome those who believe that there is no more harm enjoying the morals taught by a good play on a Su evening than there is to the listening to the music and the singing of the choir in church They will welcome those who deny the right f fanatical cranks to say when a man shall drink, how much he shall drink and where and how he must drink. These are all matters which directly affect the personal wishes and liberty of the individual, and it is these frensied attacks of the minority on the lib-erty of the majority which the league will sek to counteract and obstruct. To swear allegiance to any political party would be fatal to the aims of this organization," and in the paddock these days. He flits from one group of men to another and vesterday some of the regulars thought that he was a sleuth. He is always there with the wise information, but appears to have the cops beaten when it comes to a case of interfering with others people's business.

Jakey Josephs is the busy bee on the lawn

Delcanta ran like a lobster in the steeplechase. Although he looked like a sure winner the smart set went to Malacca. Sanctus however, spoiled a cleanup with Malacca, whe reat there was no end of grumbling. When Killiecrankieran third in the fifth race Bill Daly's share of the $500 purse was just half a century note. But that was better than nothing and Daly was all smiles.

Chaplet worked a mile in 1:40 for the last race and was believed to be a cinch. But she ran as if she had rheumatism, and those who pinned their faith to her received a severe

The Fasig-Tipton Company announce yesterday that the sales of T. J. Carson and H. T. Oxnard, scheduled for to-day and to-morrow, have been combined and postponed until next Saturday. On Monday the company will sell the Hinds & Eaker and Sidney Bedford yearlings and on Wednesday, July 1, the yearlings belonging to Edward Corregan will be sold.

BALLOT WINS THE EQUALITY. AURORA FIRST AT NEW LONDON With 130 Pounds He Runs a Mile in 1:35

at Sheepshead. James R. Keene won two races at Sheeps-nead Bay yesterday with Ballot, the winner of the Suburban last week, and Helmet, the best two-year-old colt in his barn. Ballot, with 130 pounds on his back, galloped off with the Equality Stakes, at a mile. He was a prohibitive choice, the handicapper's quotation being 1 to 12. For half a mile Rosimiro, an added starter, showed the way, with Ballot chose behind. But when the head of the stretch, was reached Ballot breezed to the front and then galloped to the wire with four lengths to spare in 1:30. Live Wire beat Spooner by two lengths for the place.

Helmet ran coupled with Turncoat at pro-hibitive figures in the Colin, for two-year-olds, five furlongs, Futurity course. Helmet was outrun in the early part of the race by Wood-ford Clay's Enfield and Turncoat, but when Guy Burns got him straightened out at the bend in the track the Keene crack rushed to the front and won easily by two lengths in 0.39 3-5. J. E. Madden's Connaught Ranger closed rapidly and beat Turncoat three lengths for the place.

Taboo, 6 to 1. came from nowhere in the last furlong of the Gen Monroe Selling, for last furiong of the Gen Monroe Selling, for two-year-olds, five and a half furiongs, Futurity course, and got up in the final strides, to win by a head from F. R. Hitchcock's Clef, 15 to 1. The latter was a head in front of L. A. Celia's Fore, 11 to 5, who led for half the distance. The time was 1:06.

Paul J. Rainey'a Sanctus, 9 to 2, won the Zinziber Steeplechase Handicap, at about two mile, in the fast time of 4:03 2-5. F. J. Nolan's Malacca, 13 to 5, was a strong second, with J. W. Colt's Ironsides, 12 to 1, eight lengths back. W. G. Brokaw's Delcanta, 8 to 5, ran a dead looking race and was last.

Frank J. Farrell's Grapple, even money, made all the running in the Tenny Selling race, at a mile and a furlong on the grass, and won easily by two lengths in 1:53 4-5. C. R. Ellison's Temaceo, 6 to 1, was second, beating Bill Daly's Killlecrankle, 50 to 1, by three lengths. Poterne, 4 to 1, was in close quarters all the way.

F. A. Forsythe's Jeanne D'Arc, 5 to 1, beat a big field by a length in the last race, the Raceiand, for maidens, at a mile, in 1:39 3-5. George G. Hall, 15 to 1, beat Monocle, 15 to 1, a length and a half for the places, James R. Keene's Chaplet, 8 to 5, could not raise a gallop. The summaries:

FINISHES AFTER DARK. Beats the Istalena by 27 Minutes 21 Second

After a Pretty Race Up the Sound —Other Yachts in Indian Harber Y. C. Cruise Are Far Behind the Wigner. NEW LONDON, June 23.—The Aurora, Com-modore Vanderbilt's 57 rater, was the first of the fleet of yachts racing in the Indian Harbor Yacht Club regatta to reach here.

She crossed the finishing line at Bartlett's Reef lightship at 8:35:05. It had taken her 12 hours 2 minutes 28 seconds to sail the seventy-two miles from Greenwich. The Istalena, owned by G. M. Pynchon, finished at 9:05:07. Twelve yachts started in the race and they had light head winds all the way up. When last seen the others were a long way astern of the two 57 footers and some will be out until early in the morning.

The wind all day long was easterly, sometimes a little north of east and then toward the end south of east, so that it was a long. hard pull. The committee, Frank Bowne Jones and Richard Monks, was out early to get the racers off and were guests of Vice-Commodore Charles Sweeney of the Columbia Yacht Club on the steamer Emiline. The Emiline jogged along leisurely with the leaders all day and shortly before sunset had a short race with Charles Harkness's steamer Agawa, and the Emiline beat that boat quite handily.

The warning signal was made at 8:15 o'clock from a line off Captain's Island. The wind was then east by north and the tide was the ast of the flood. The schooner Seneca was the first away, crossing the line at 8:31:16. She was on the starboard tack and set her jibtopsall and foretopsall on the line. She soon took the port tack and stood out in the

she was on the starboard tack and set her intopasali and foretopasali on the line. She soon took the port tack and stood out in the Sound.

The Aurora and Istalena had some very pretty manœuvring and both were at the line when the signal sounded. W. Butler Duncan, Jr., sailed the Aurora, and that yacht crossed the line at $35.95. Istalena crossed at $35.18. These two carried clubtopasalis and crossed on the starboard tack. The Aurora was to leeward, but in such position that she had her wind clear and was backwinding the Istalena.

On the next signal four schooners started. The Eclipse was first, at $40:35, Grampus at $42:16, Uncas at $42:51, Tammany at $43:09. The next signal sent the small sloops off. The Gardenia crossed at $48:23, Dorwina $46:02, Mimosa II. $46:26 and the yawl Scapha at $47:24.

The 30 foot sloop Bobtail, which had taken part in the race to Block Island, was entered in the race, and she had sailed up the Sound all night to be on hand and crossed the line to go east again at 9:04:18. She was handicapped 9 minutes 18 seconds, but soon began to overhaul the Scapha. The Mimosa II owned by Stuyvesant Wainwright, had tried to get back but was becalmed in the Sound and was passed two hours later.

It was a hazy morning but the outlook was promising and soon the wind increased to a fair sailing breeze and all the yachts made a leg across the Sound to Lioyds Neck. The Aurora soon drew across the Issalena and took the weather position and then both sloops passed the Seneca.

By 9:30 o'clock the wind had so freshened that the Sound was dotted with whitecaps and all hands expected an early finish. The Aurora and Istalena held the port tack until off Eaton's Point. The Seneca was then third. Out in the Sound the Eclipse was doing well, followed by, the Tammany, Grampus and Uncas.

The Gardenia led the sloops, followed by the Mimosa II. while the Dorwina had elected the the dorest and the senecal contents and the senecal contents and the senecal contents and the such the point and was dotted with whiteca doing well, followed by the Tammany, Grampus and Uncas.

The Gardenia led the sloops, followed by the Mimosa II., while the Dorwina had elected to sail on the north side and was doing well alone. At 10:20 the 57 footers passed Pear's Ledge light. They had sailed thirteen miles of the course dead to windward in 1 hour 50 minutes. The Aurora then had a lead of about a quarter of a mile.

The wind lightened considerably and it was 12:15 when the yachts passed the middle ground off Stratford Shoal. When off New Haven at 2 o'clock both stood over to the Long Island shore and the Aurora had increased her lead. The wind freshened against and the Istalena, splitting tacks with the Aurora, headed across the Sound toward Falkners Island, while the Aurora held along the Long Island shore and so got out of the tide which at that time was running west again.

When the Aurora crossed over toward tide which at that time was running west again.

When the Aurora crossed over toward Cornfield light vessel it was seen that she had made a big gain and was leading by a least three miles. Again the wind failed the yachts and the last ten miles of the race were slow and tedious.

In the meantime the Emiline had gone to the finishing line and when the sun sank below the horizon two red lights were holsted and the steam yacht's searchlight got into play. It was after 8 o'clock when the lights of the Aurora were seen slowly approaching the finish. Her sail looked out like a black spectre in the night.

The yacht glided across the line at 8:37:33

the finish. Her sail looked out like a black spectre in the night.

The yacht glided across the line at 8:37:33 and as she went by a bright night signal burned on the deck showed her number and again she disappeared in the darkness and gloom heading towards the harbor. The Istalena finished and then the committee settled down for a long wait. They will come ashore in the morning with the results in the other classes. The summary:

GOLF.

A commendable idea in the handicapping at the Hollywood Golf Club this season is that for men they will be based on the par of the course, which is 72, and for women on the bogey score of 78. To-day, July 1, 15, August 5 and 26 there will be medal play com petitions for women. The qualifying round for the women's championship, four to keep on in matches, will be on August 12. There are week end events for the men and a special competition on July 4, but their champion ship will not begin until September 5. first eight will qualify for the title and cup, the second eight for the Hollywood and the third eight for the West End cup. The green committee is made up of Arthur McAleenan, chairman: J. J. O'Donohue, Jr., Frank E. Henderson and H. Content, ex-officio. John Young has been succeeded at Hollywood as professional by Oliver Wood, a home bred

He will now play in the final with either H. G. Giles or W. G. Philips. There is a close race on for the governor's cup for the best six net scores made during May and June. J. A. Williar is now leading with an average of 73% and A. L. Clark is second with 74. The Yountakah team has been yery successful, winning five of the six matches played. As an appreciation of the club's pride in their work Mrs. George H. Ryall gave a cup for the members of the team. Four qualified, Dr. H. C. Reynolds, George Ryall, Jr., A. L. Clark and E. J. Luce. At match play Ryall beat Reynolds, 4 up and 3 to play, and Clark won from Clark, 2 up and 1 to play.

The June cup of the Richmond County Country Club was played for yesterday. The final was won by R. C. Harrison, who beat L. Daniela 3 up and 1 to go. The cup was presented by Richard P. Learned. The summaries:

First Round—R. L. Harrison beat W. Bennett, 1 up (19 holes): John E. Faber beat Taintor, 2 up; W. Seaman beat Burbank, 2 up; L. Daniels beat Paterson, 2 up and 1 to go. Semi-final Round—Harrison beat Faber, 2 up and 1 to go; Daniels beat Seaman, 2 up.

Final Round—Harrison beat Daniels, 3 up and 2 to go.

While entries close to-night for the Staten Island championship, those who neglect that formality will be allowed to start if they arrive at the Fox Hills Golf Club before 10 o'clock to-morrow morning. The committee has added a cup for the third sixteen in the qualifying round and also for the beaten eight in that division.

Miss Lillian French, champion of the Women's Western Golf Association, has been forbidden by her physician to participate in any tournaments this year. In consequence she will be unable to defend her title or to be one of the Western team ut Chary Chase in October for the matches to precede the women's national championship.

Beat Harvard 3 to 0 in a Glad Commenc ment Game. COMMODORE VANDERBILT'S SLOOP New Haven, June 28.—In a game which made glad the hearts of thousands of Yale graduates Yale defeated Harvard this afternoon in the annual commencement baseball game by the score of 3 to 0. The game was played hard from the start to the close and

A larger crowd than ever before gathered at Yale field for a baseball game, numbering oversit,000 persons. They arrived shortly after 2 o'clock and waited for the graduates' pro-

When the sun came out and shone on the bright and varied colors in the stands the scene was brilliant. Harvard never had a chance to score. In the first inning for Yale, Dines stole second and was knocked home by Williams. In the seventh Clifford singled, was sacrificed to second and came in on Jones's hit. Jones later came in when Harding failed to catch Dines out at first and let the ball go by. Tad Jones played at his old position, first base, in place of Philbin, and Wylie caught.

EVEN BETTING ON BOAT RACE. Some Harvard Men. However, Want 10 to 7 -Scratch Races To-day.

NEW LONDON, June 23.-Yale and Harvard crews still remain on an even basis in the betting, several hundred dollars being deposited in the safes of two of the leading hotels here. Some Cambridge men are asking odds of 10 to 7 on the ground that their varsity eight has been materially weakened by the recent changes.

The greater portion of this afternoon was The greater portion of this afternoon was taken up at quarters by listening to returns of the baseball game at New Haven. Assistant Secretary of State Robert Bacon with his two sons, who are members of the varsity and freshmen eights, were interested listeners. The Harvard eights had a very interesting brush for a mile upstream against the tide and with a light favoring breeze. The varsity crew did not cover themselves with glory for the freshles were but half a boat length astern when the race ended. The time for the varsity boat was 5 minutes 35 seconds.

time for the varsity boat was 5 minutes 35 seconds.

To-morrow afternoon there will be two races not scheduled on the official programme. The first will be the freshman four oar, which will be up stream for a mile, and immediately after comes the race for graduate oarsmen who have not as yet been selected.

Charles H. Schweppe, chairman of the Yale-Harvard rowing committee, with Referee William Meikleham, went down and measured the course. Sidney W. Fish and Charles Morgan, the Harvard varsity oarsmen who were removed from their boats, arrived at Red Top from New Haven this evening. They will remain at the training quarters until the races are over.

Several yachts have arrived and many of them have already taken up positions on the course.

CORNELL FRESHMEN FAST. They Beat the Varsity and Courtney Finds Out That His Big Crew Can Stay.

POUGHEREPSIN, June 23. - When the Cornel varsity eight returned from practice to-night Coach Courtney said: "I have just ascertained that my big eight can row four miles. Until this afternoon I had little faith in their ability to do this and have never before put them over more than a three mile course. People will probably say that the Cornell crew rows well and looks nice, but I can tell you that with all this they are not fast." The freshman crew beat the ivarsity crew in a spin over the four miles.

All the crews were out for practice both morning and evening to-day. Nothing unusual developed during the practice to-day, although there have been several rumors as to time trials. One has it that the Syracuse varsity eight came close to the record of 18 minutes 53 1-5 seconds, but this could not be verified. them over more than a three mile course

During the afternoon pitchers felt th heavy hand of the batters. All the nu-merous moundmen who were called on suffered more or less, Patsy Flaherty being the only one to go through nine innings Mathewson was summoned to the front in both games. He saved the first by his effective pitching in the ninth, when McGinnity was weakening, but he couldn't repeat in the second. The Kelley men solved him in the second engagement. The double dose of rallies worked the cranks up to a keen pitch of excitement, and there was very little of the dragged. There was slipshod pitching, but also vigorous hitting and much clever fielding. Si Seymour kept up his wide range of ground covering and made some difficult catches. Several able-bodied batsmen were produced as occasion required. Doyle, Bresnahan and Bridwell had a monopoly of New York's hitting in the first, which also was characterized by an exceptional batting streak by the Bostons in the eighth inning, when they made a single, a double and two triples in succession.

With one run as an appetizer in the third inning of the first game the New Yorks made four more in the fourth. Dorner passed two men, hit another, and Bresnahan, Bridwell and Doyle made hits. The run in the sixth was due to hits by Bresnahan and Bridwell, aided and abetted by loose work on ground balls by Capt. Kelley. Rapid fire slugging by McGann, Kelley. Rapid fire slugging by McGann, Kelley. Dahlen and Hannifan sent four Bostonians scurrying to the platter in the eighth. In the ninth a hit by Beaumont and a base on balls to Browne put two on bases with nobody out. call was sent out for Mathewson, and that renowned slant mixer stopped the Bostons instanter.

A base on balls to Tenney and Flaherty's bad throw of a force put two New Yorkers on bases in the first inning of the second game. Seymour sacrificed. With two strikes on Donlin Flaherty tried to fool that athlete with a quick return. Little recked he of the folly of the move until Mike reversed the ball past McGann for a single, scoring Tenney and Doyle.

Crandall played out in the second inning. He forced two men over the plate with bases on balls and wag flayed for singles by Dahlen. Ritchey and McGann. Devlin started the disaster with a bad throw to first of Bates's bunt. Bates came to bat twice. He landed on Taylor for a single the second time up and drove in the sixth run. Donlin made the longest single extant in the fourth inning. Browne made a splendid try for Donlin's liner to the fence and held the hit to a single. The seventh inning was tempestuous. Shannon singled, Bresnahan walked and Bridweil scored Shannon with a little fly over Ritchey's head. Merkle was sent in to hit for Taylor. He did so with a vengeance. He poled the ball into the left field seats for the circu t. The Boston players surrounded Rigler and declared with might and main that the hit was foul. Rigler nad ruled fair, and when Dahlen threw his glove down in his agitation at the ruling Rigler sent him to the clubhouse. Manager Kelley sustained the same sentence for his disputatiousness. Hits by Tenney and Donlin tied the score.

McGann whipped a stinging single to centre in the ninth and Bates drew four balls.

McGann whipped a stinging single to centre in the ninth and Bates drew four balls. Sweeney sacrificed, but McGann was pinned at the plate on Hannifan's stab to Mathewson. Ritchey singled and convoyed Bates in and Graham slid a safety to right which meant a run for Hannifan. The score:

While McIntire was on the slab for the Brooklyns yesterday the Phillies swung their bats to good purpose and made the most of that pitcher's stay in the game. They hit him for three runs and three proved enough and just enough to win. The Phillies began to brush McIntire's offerings around with reckless disregard in the first inning, but didn't score until the second. Osborn. Doolan and Dooln ripped off singles in succession, but Burch's quick return of Dooin's hit copped Osborn at the plate. Moren then filled the bases with a single, and Grant rammed a safety to the outer garden which scored Doolan and Doom.

A base on balls to Moren and Grant's three bagger gave the Phillies their third and last run. Moren's exertions and the heat were too much for the pitcher and he gave way to Sparks after the fifth inning. The Brooklyns scored twice in the sixth. Consecutive hitting by Pattee, Hummel and Lumley, PHILADELPHIA (N. L. ), 8; BROOKLYN, 2.
